On the ball

Welcome to tonight's visitors Norwich City for this re-arranged First Division clash.

The Wanderers return to Burnden Park, the scene of their tremendous 1-0 win over Nottingham Forest a fortnight ago hoping for a repeat performance.

Things didn't go too well for them at Crystal Palace at the weekend — always a difficult side to play against on their own ground.

And it took a late Paul Jones to get the Wanderers on the scoresheet after they had been trailing 3-0 to the home side.

Norwich are comfortably placed in mid table with 31 points from their 30 games this season and on Saturday they figured in a 2-2 home draw against Brighton.

One of their scorers was the highly talented England striker Kevin Reeves who hit the headlines at the weekend after his club had agreed a £1 million transfer with Manchester City.

At the time of writing this column, the deal was still going through which put the player out of tonight's game.

The Wanderers obviously have a tough series of games ahead of them as they continue to battle against relegation, and newly appointed manager Stan Anderson and first team coach Tony Dunne are just the men to rebuild the side.

Part of the accent has been put on youth recently with a view to the future and Mr. Anderson has already said that he intends to spend time finding out what every player on the books is capable of — with several more set for first team games.

He gave midfield man Phil Wilson his debut and there are other highly talented youngsters set to make the breakthrough.

Home form improved with the victory over Nottingham Forest and another good result tonight will be a big help to the side and the new team at the helm.

Welcome to NORWICH CITY

Norwich City now seem reasonably sure of achieving their highest-ever position in the First Division this season. After an explosive start to the campaign they went to the top of the table with maximum points from three games. After that their outstanding home record kept them close to the top and it wasn't until Liverpool ran up that fabulous 5-3 victory at Carrow Road that any visiting side won at Carrow Road in a League match.

It was Liverpool who also ended the Canaries' fine run in the League Cup. Norwich ousted Gillingham, Manchester United and West Bromwich before losing 1-3 at home to Liverpool in the fifth round.

In the F.A. Cup they won 3-0 at Yeovil and then drew 1-1 at Wolves. Sadly, they hit a rare off-day in the replay and went out by 2-3.

There's little doubt that Norwich would have been higher than they are today had it not been for a string of injuries and some key players hitting loss of form. Manager John Bond has used no fewer than 26 players in his first-team so far but the result of his experimenting has found him a current team that has a nice balance of youth and experience.

In midfield, for instance, he has three exceedingly wise old heads in John Ryan, Martin Peters and Graham Paddon, a trio that has played almost 1,500 League games between them!

But the system works well for, up front, the manager has three younger players — Peter Mendham, Justin Fashanu and Kevin Reeves — who have been capitalising upon the know-how of the men behind them.

For experience, they don't come more mature than goalkeeper Kevin Keelan. And in defence, Norwich have two youngish full-backs in Kevin Bond and Greg Downs with the more experienced Tony Powell operating with Roger Brown in the middle.

Norwich, who now hope to beat their previous best First Division placing of tenth in 1975/76, are quite new to the big-time of course. It was as recently as 1972 that they stepped into the First Division for the first time and then they remained for only two seasons.

But they regained their place at the first attempt and since 1975 have been showing an improvement each season.

One of the most disappointing aspects of Norwich's success this season has been the size of their gates. Apart from the visit of local rivals Ipswich (24,335) and leaders Liverpool (25,624), the Carrow Road average has been around the 17,000 mark — one of the lowest in the First Division.

Norwich's present attendances are about 4,000 down on what they were getting in their relegation season of 1973/74!

Yet the football at Carrow Road has certainly not lacked entertainment value. Says manager John Bond: "I have been paying special attention to the entertainment value of our play. We've had some fine matches with plenty of goals and we have won most of them."

Like many of today's successful clubs, Norwich can look back on harder times. There was a time when there was a campaign by the press and some rival clubs to have Norwich kicked out of the League!

After an eternity of mediocrity in the Third Division, and their third post-war application for re-election in the mid-fifties, Norwich were almost on the scrap heap. And they were so heavily in debt that they even had their telephone cut off.

"Boot them out to make way for an ambitious club like Peterborough" was the feeling around the country.

But, with the help of a newly-formed supporters' club, Norwich picked themselves off the ground and the recent past has brought them unprecedented success, including promotion to the First Division and success in the League Cup.

Yet none of this could have happened if that critical vote at the League's AGM of 1957 had gone the wrong way.

The Norwich club was founded in 1903 and became one of the founder members of the Football League's Third Division (South) in 1920. They spent five years in the Second Division immediately before the last war but then remained in Division Three until gaining promotion in 1960.

They won the League Cup in 1962 and were beaten in the finals of 1973 and 1975.

Our New Manager

Our new managerial team of Stan Anderson and Tony Dunne got off to a flying start when Wanderers earned their second League victory of the season beating European Champions Nottingham Forest here at Burden Park

Stan couldn't have asked for a better start in his new job, seeing the players battle their way through that game picking up the treasured scalp of Brian Clough's Forest.

He and Tony had been appointed to their new jobs the day before and if their first match together is anything to go by, then there are better times ahead.

Neither man is new to Burnden Park.

Stan came here in November 1978 as assistant manager and was "caretaker" manager in full control of team affairs for a month before being put in permanent charge.

As a player in the North-east he had an illustrious career. He was a schoolboy international at 14 and signed for Sunderland a year later.

He made his league debut when he was just turned 18 and went on to make 480 league appearances for the Roker club followed by spells at Newcastle and Middlesbrough.

In fact he has the distinction of having skippered all three of the North-east "giants".

He became player-coach at Middlesbrough before becoming manager and steering the side to promotion to Division Two. He was manager at Ayresome Park for seven years and in that time built up one of the best youth policies in the League.

Middlesbrough were on the fringe of promotion to Division One when he left Ayresome Park and in fact they won promotion the following season under Jack Charlton's leadership.

Stan went on to spend a year in Greece in charge of AEK Athens before returning to join Gordon Jago as assistant manager at Queens Park Rangers. After a short spell at Loftus Road he went on to Doncaster where he was manager for four years before joining Wanderers.

A cultured half back, Stan made Under-23 and full international appearance for England.

Tony Dunne was Stan's selection as Chief Coach bringing the highly-popular Irishman back to Burnden after a few months out of the game.

In fact Tony only left Wanderers last May to pursue his playing career in America with Detroit Express.

Regarded by most people in the game as a model professional, Tony became one of the most popular men ever to pull on a Wanderers' shirt.

He came to Burnden in July 1973 on a free transfer from Manchester United and went on to make 170 League appearances.

He came into English football in 1960 when he joined Manchester United from Irish club Shelbourne. In his spell at Old Trafford, he made 415 League appearances at full back and won an FA Cup winners medal, two League championship medals and the coveted European Cup winners medal.

Tony was a popular player in his six years at Burnden both among the players and the fans and his knowledge of the game will be a tremendous asset.

He made 32 full international appearances for Eire - eight as a Wanderers player.

We all wish Stan and Tony the best of fortunes as they embark on their new careers and we look forward to them guiding the club to a bright future.

KEVIN Keelan (Goalkeeper) Kevin is now the League's oldest goalkeeper and he has a total of more than 640 League appearances behind him. Born in India, Kevin returned to England as a boy and began his professional career with Aston Villa. Wrexham signed him in 1961 and it was two years later that he began his long association with Norwich.

KEVIN BOND (Defender) Kevin is the son of manager John Bond and they previously linked up at Bournemouth where Kevin was an apprentice. Norwich took up his apprenticeship in July 1974 and for the past two seasons he has been their regular right-back.

ROGER BROWN (Defender) Bournemouth signed Roger from AP Leamington for a mere £5,000 and he made his League debut during the 1977/78 campaign. He moved on to Norwich last summer for a fee of £85,000.

TONY POWELL (Defender) Yet another former Bournemouth player, Tony made his League debut for the Cherries in 1968/69, winning an immediate first-team place. Norwich signed him in 1974 and, until injury ended the run early this season, Tony appeared in one run of 150 consecutive League and Cup games for the Canaries.

DAVID JONES (Defender) David began his League career with Bournemouth in 1970 and was capped by the Welsh under-23 side. Nottingham Forest paid £85,000 for him in 1974 but he was discarded by Brian Clough just over a year later. It was after joining Norwich for £40,000 that he won six full Welsh caps. A broken leg interrupted his career in 1978.

GREG DOWNS (Defender) Greg grew up in the junior teams at Carrow Road and he made his first League appearances whilst on loan to Torquay in 1977/78. Last season he played a couple of First Division games for the Canaries and his form, since being re-introduced to the side in October, has been a revelation.

MARK NIGHTINGALE (Defender/Midfield) Mark served his apprenticeship with Bournemouth and won England youth honours while at Dean Court. He moved on to Crystal Palace in 1976 but he didn't get a first-team game so he signed for Norwich a year later.

GRAHAM PADDON (Midfield) Graham completed his apprenticeship with Coventry and played a few games in their senior side. Norwich initially signed him in 1969 but they sold him to West Ham for £170,000 in 1974. He returned to Carrow Road on a £110,000 deal in 1977. He is a former England under-23 international.

MARTIN PETERS (Midfield) One of the last survivors in League soccer from England's 1966 World Cup success, Martin was capped on 67 occasions. He starred in over 300 matches for West Ham before becoming the first £200,000 player when Tottenham signed him in 1970. Norwich invested £50,000 in his transfer in 1975 and last season he was their leading scorer.

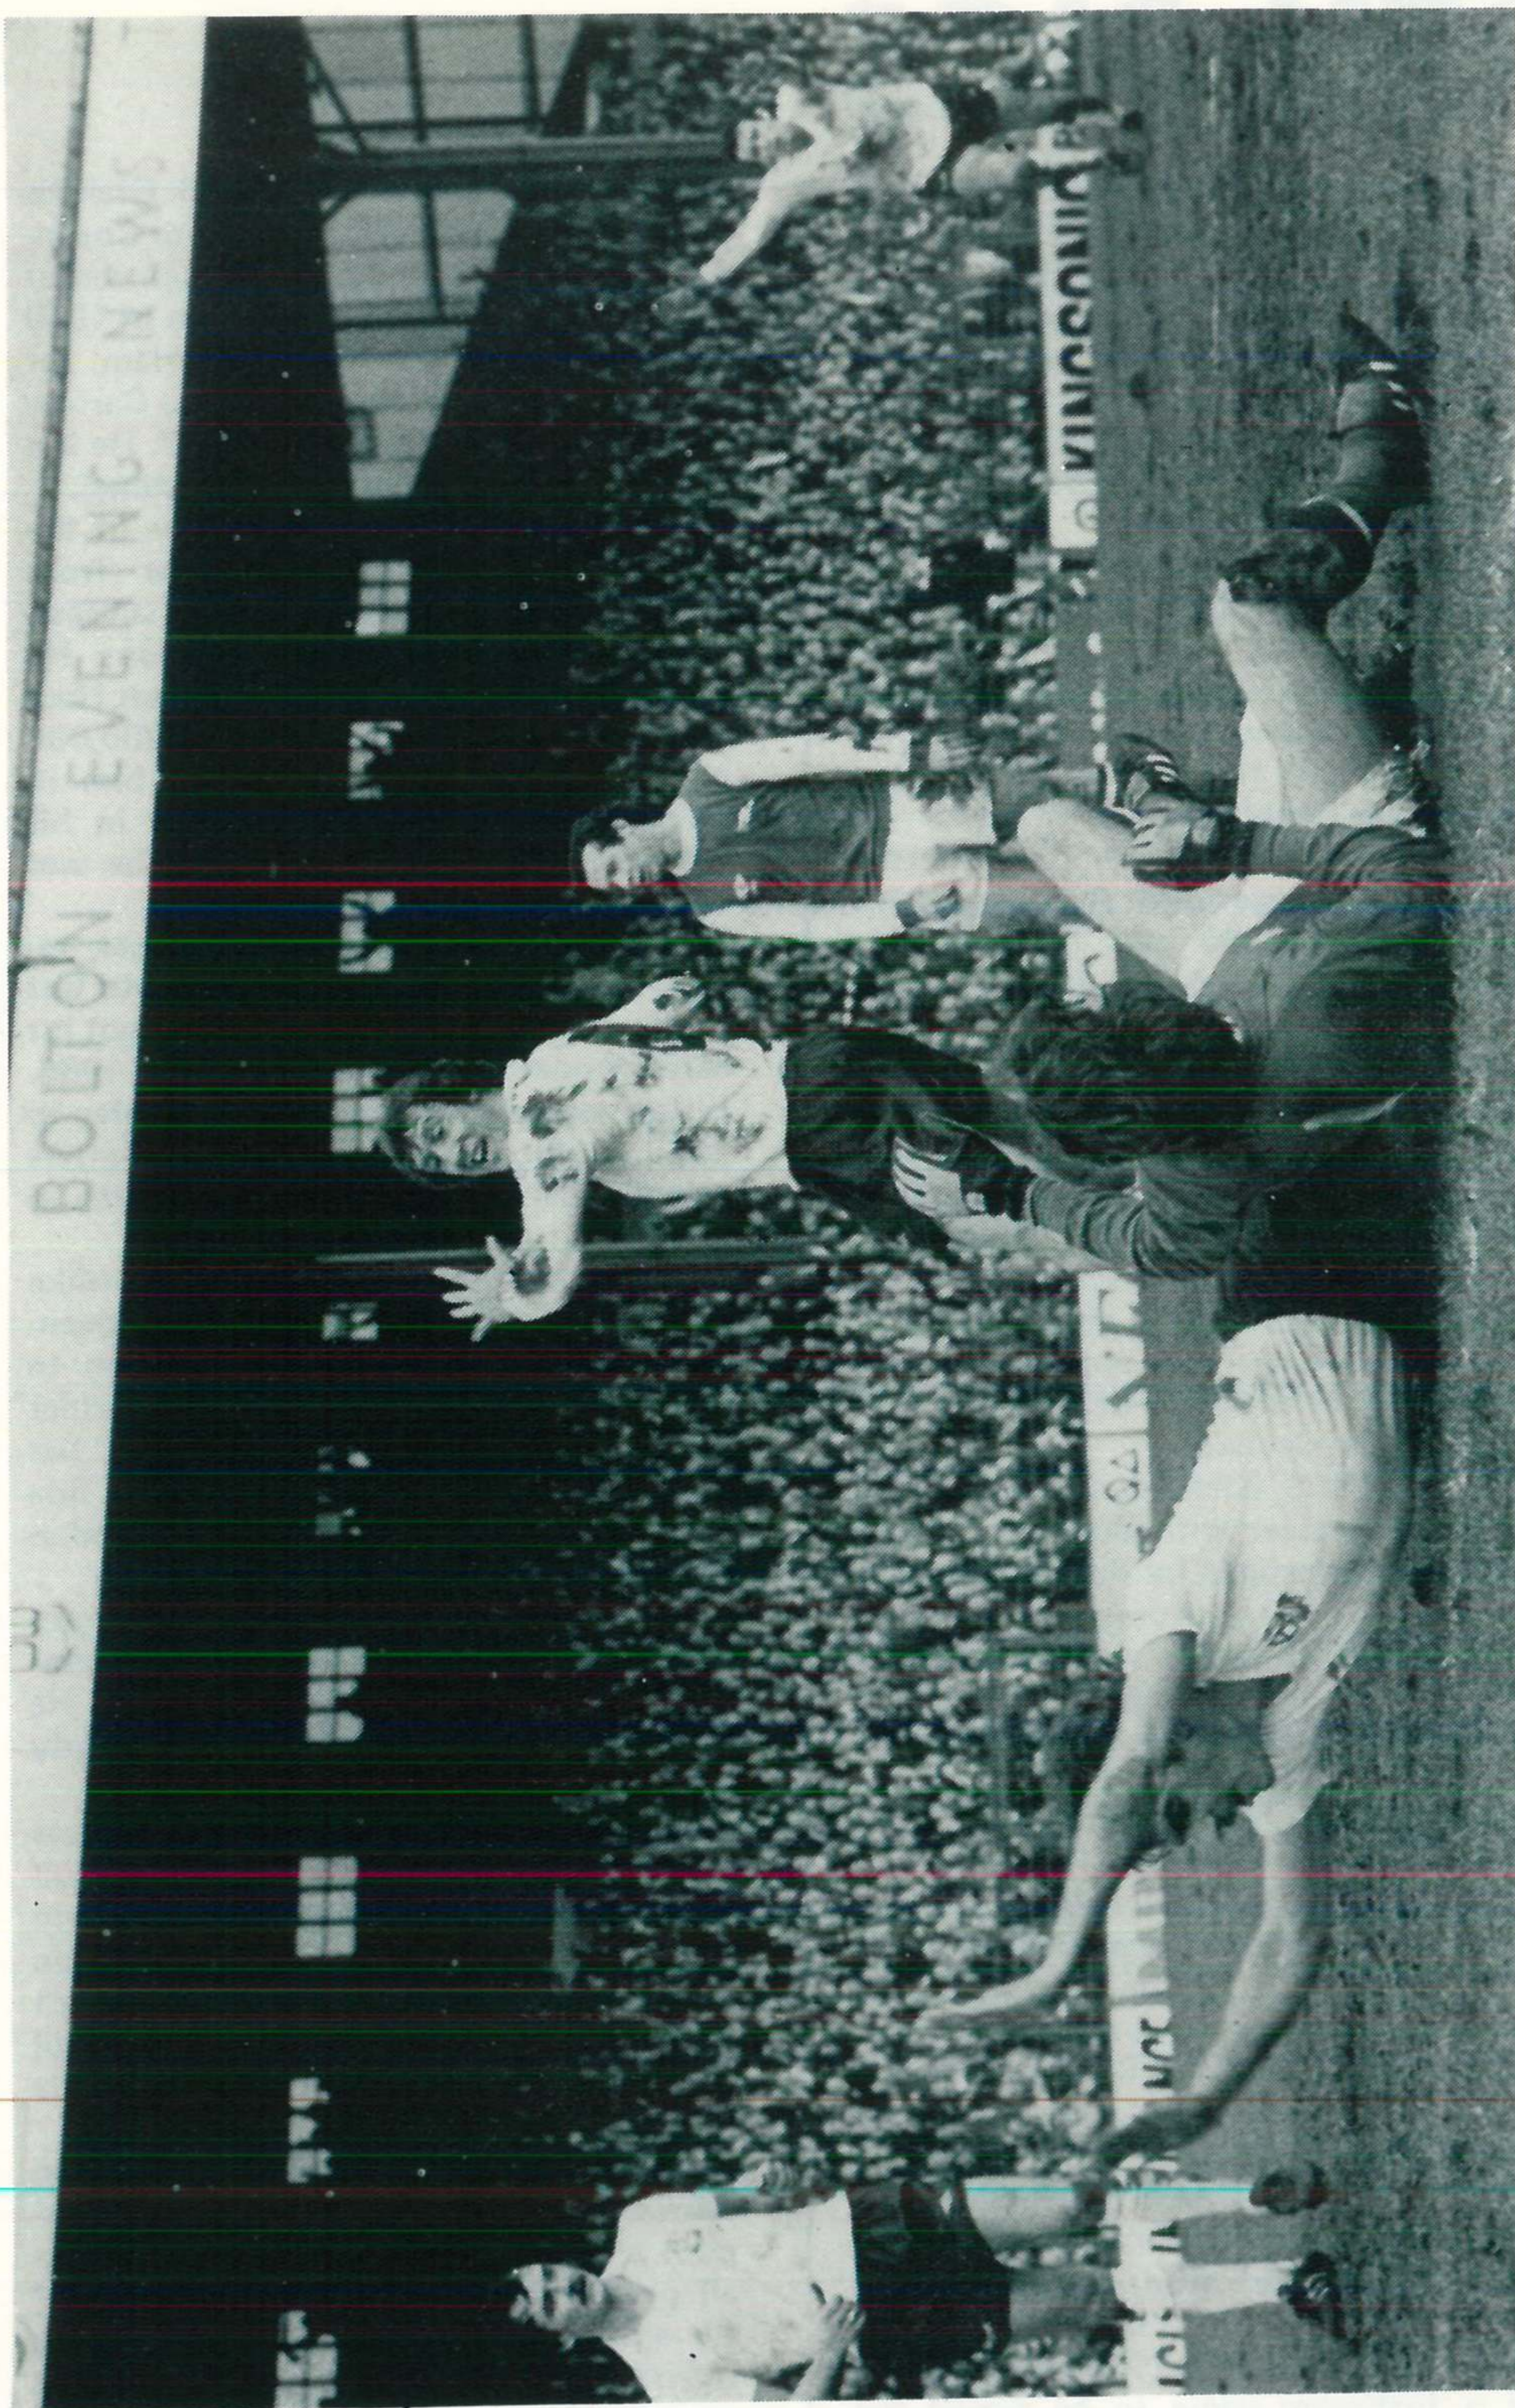

JOHN RYAN (Midfield) John was recommended by Tonbridge to Arsenal but it was with Fulham that he really got his career under way with his debut in 1966. Luton signed him on a free transfer in 1969 and he went on to give the Hatters splendid service until joining Norwich in 1976.

MIKE McGUIRE (Midfield) Mike emerged as a League player with Coventry City in 1971 and he moved on to Norwich three years later. A former England youth international, Mike has not been a regular member of the side this season but is very often nominated as substitute.

PETER MENDHAM (Forward) Peter worked his way up from the junior teams to make his League bow last season. He stayed for a few games and has recently been recalled on the right wing.

KEVIN REEVES (Forward) Kevin was Bournemouth's top scorer in his first full season (1975/76) in their League eleven. Norwich signed him in 1976 and he soon earned a place in the England under-21 side. In November he made a successful first appearance in the full England side against Bulgaria.

JUSTIN FASHANU (Forward) Justin scored a magnificent goal against Liverpool a couple of weeks ago which will in all probability become the BBC's goal of the season. His sparkling form since being introduced to the Norwich side last season has won high praise and this season he was capped by England "B".

Sam Allardyce raises his arms in triumph after scoring in the F.A. Cup against Arsenal.

First Division Focus

Leeds United fans this week had the opportunity to bid farewell to one of the most loyal players ever to serve their club ----- Scottish international goalkeeper David Harvey. He was given a much-deserved testimonial match last Wednesday. And the bizarre thing was that Harvey turned out for the opposition!

A couple of days before the game, against Vancouver Whitecaps, Harvey was sold to the Canadian club for £40,000. So, after almost two decades at Elland Road, Harvey took his exit as a "visitor".

Loyal Harvey spent almost ten years in the reserves at Leeds when Gary Sprake was the number one. But he deputised on many occasions when Sprake was unavailable ----- including the 1970 and 1972 F.A. Cup Finals.

It wasn't until 1972/73 that he gained a regular place in the Leeds' side and then he was almost immediately elevated to international status. He went on to win 16 Scottish Caps. This season he lost his place to John Lukic and the directors agreed to give him a testimonial match.

At Vancouver, Harvey will be playing under the leadership of Alan Ball whose own career has been in some sort of turmoil of late. Southampton's former England midfield star had been on the lookout for a managerial post for some while and, when the call came from his old club Blackpool, he couldn't resist.

"Blackpool was the club who gave me my chance as a young player," beamed Ball. "Now they are offering me the chance to begin my managerial career. I couldn't turn this opportunity down".

Ball has been appointed player-manager of Blackpool but he will not be able to take up full control until next season. While under suspension as a player, he watched his new team beat Colchester United 1-0. But his presence at Bloomfield Road angered his current boss Lawrie McMenemy.

"I would like to remind him that he is at present under contract to us," stated McMenemy. "If he doesn't report for training on Monday morning he will not be going to Blackpool at all. And he will not be going to Vancouver. We are paying his wages and his first loyalty is to us at the moment."

Ball duly fell in line and turned up at The Dell as requested. In a couple of weeks he will return to Vancouver Whitecaps, the club he piloted to the championship of the North American Soccer League last summer.

While in Canada, Ball has promised to phone Blackpool each day. Before he leaves he plans to spend as much time as possible at Bloomfield Road.

Ted MacDougall, the former Scottish International, has been appointed player-coach and much of the responsibility for team affairs will fall upon his shoulders for the remainder of this season. "I do not believe in coaching as such," he admitted this week. "You can plan things and persuade players to do things but I think that coaching has done a lot to ruin the game."

Will Macdougall be picking himself in the Blackpool line-up? "To be quite honest, I don't think I could get into the tem!" he said. "They have two excellent strikers in Tony Kellow and Paul Fletcher. I was very impressed when I first saw them."

First Division clubs are queuing up to sign Oxford United's 17-year-old starlet Kevin Brock. And Oxford manager Bill Asprey is doing everything in his power to further the boy's career.

"For such a young player he's truly tremendous," says Mr Asprey. "He learns so quickly. The point is that he has now reached the point where we can no longer test him in Third Division football. He really needs to be in a First Division team if he is to go further forward."

Brock caused a controversy recently when Brighton wanted to sign him for £200,000. After spending the weekend as the guest of the club, Brock had some uncomplimentary things to say about Brighton and manager Alan Mullery promptly showed him the door.

Ipswich's 6-0 hammering of Manchester United extended their unbeaten run to 16 League and Cup games ---- a club record. On December 1 they were third from bottom, facing a desperate relegation fight. Now they have an outside chance of the Championship and seem certain to qualify for next season's UEFA Cup.

How to get there

Here is your RAC route to the away game at West Brom on March 18th.

Leave Bolton on the A666(M)/M61/M62 (follow 'Liverpool' and 'M6 South' signs) to intersection 21a M6 at Croft. (16 miles)

M6 South, then M5 (follow South West signs at intersection with M6/M5) to intersection 1, junction with A41 (follow 'Birmingham West' signs) at WEST BROMWICH (97 miles)

West Bromwich Albion's, The Hawthorns, is 300 yards towards Birmingham on your right after joining the A41 from the Motorway.

There is plenty parking turning right at the ground and then right again.

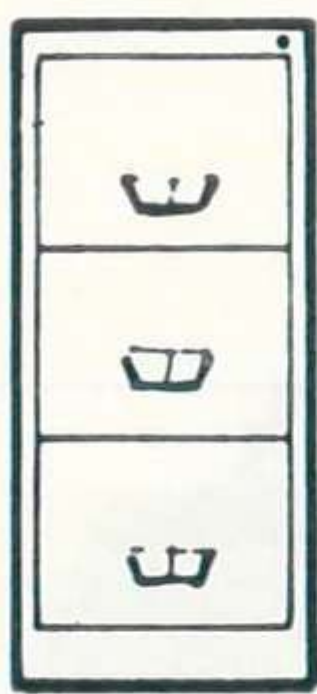

Wanderers Travel Club

Travel facilities to away games are again available through the official Wanderers Travel Club to members who produce their membership card when booking and carry their card on all coach or rail trips.

Membership of the Travel Club for the coming season is now being accepted by the promotions office and costs just 50p for the year (free for agents).

A passport size photograph is all that is required along with the membership fee. Support your team and follow the Wanderers with the official Travel Club.

But remember — membership does NOT guarantee a seat. You must book early in the week to be sure of travelling.
